

Sponsors and Exhibitors

Please Join Us for the 41st Annual ASADS School

March 22-25, 2016

University of Alabama's Bryant Conference Center - Tuscaloosa, Alabama

We would like to invite you and your organization to participate in providing affordable, quality education to professionals specializing in the prevention, treatment, and recovery of alcohol and substance abuse, co-occurring disorders, and behavioral health issues by becoming a sponsor/exhibitor for this fabulous school.

- How many attendees? Over 700 professionals attend annually.
- Who attends? addiction/recovery professionals, child protective staff, clergy, correctional personnel, court referral officers, DUI program staff, EAP managers, educators, human resource professionals, law enforcement professionals, licensed professional counselors, nurses, physicians, prevention specialists, probation/parole officers, psychologists, rehabilitation specialists, school counselors, school system drug education coordinators, social workers, substance abuse treatment staff, trauma counselors, volunteers, community corrections professionals and more
- Why participate? Sponsors/exhibitors receive a high level of visibility and networking opportunities which enhance their businesses and/or agencies.
- Cost? Please see the attached sponsorship/exhibitor sheet. Your investment in an exhibit enhances ASADS in many ways including assistance in the mission to provide evidenced based practices and techniques to assist clients dealing with mental health and substance use issues. The school also gives practitioners an opportunity to learn new skills in working in Behavioral Health, reduce stigma and enhance client healthcare.
- What's in it for you? Visibility, connection with professionals, relationship-building, sales, FUN!
